GENERAL CAMP INFO AND GROUP DESCRIPTIONS

LOCATION: LAST FRONTIER FARM, 222 Frontier Lane, Summit Point, WV 25446

TIME: 5:00 until 8:00 pm (Mon thru Thurs) Friday is a rain date

COST: $250.00 PER SESSION – NO REFUNDS

PARTICIPANTS: maximum number 6 per group

DIRECTIONS:

Take Route 7 West towards Winchester. Take Route 340 North. Turn Left onto Summit Point Road. Travel approx 3 miles and turn Right on Frontier Lane and follow to the end. The farm is JUST over the VA/WV line. It takes approx 30 minutes from Leesburg.

PARKING:

Drive up the driveway and veer left when you see the barns. Drive between the barns....be careful. Go past the indoor and follow the farm road towards the trailers and park in the field behind the indoor arena. If the weather is bad, we will try to keep everyone on the gravel roads if possible.

FOOD/WATER: Bring dinner and drinks for yourself and your horse.

INCLEMENT WEATHER: Unless the threat is severe, camp will go on RAIN or SHINE. Please be prepared to ride in the rain or wait out summer storms. If severe weather is predicted, an email will be sent to all campers by 3pm on the day of camp. Friday has been reserved as a rain date.

You may bring a helper if you'd like; a TSRC liability waiver must be signed by that person and provided to Robyn Harter

GROUP DESCRIPTIONS:

Elementary (up to 2' jumping height) – For the green horse and/or rider new to jumping. Riders will learn to use their position and the correct aids to develop a proper rhythm, straightness, balance, and energy at the walk, trot, and canter both in the ring and in the cross country field. Horses and riders will be introduced to jumping in a positive setting using ground poles, grids, and small cross country obstacles.

Baby Novice (up to 2'3" jumping height) – For the green horse and/or rider. Riders will build on the horse's basic foundation. By using a correct position and the proper aids, they will improve the horse's rhythm, straightness, energy, and balance at the walk, trot, and canter both in the ring and in the cross country field. Jumping will include ground poles, grids, and small cross country obstacles.

Beginner Novice (up to 2'7" jumping height) – This level is for the horse and rider combination that has some jumping experience and is comfortable jumping around a small stadium course or small cross country obstacles. Riders will further develop the ever-important basics: rhythm, straightness, balance and energy. Horses will be introduced to more difficult questions such as combinations, banks and ditches.

Novice (up to 2'11" jumping height) – This group is for the horse and rider combination that has a solid basic foundation. They are comfortable galloping in the open and jumping various fences both in the ring and in the cross country or hunt field. Emphasis will be on improving the riders position and use of the aids in order to further develop the correct energy, rhythm, and balance to the fence. Horses will be introduced to more difficult questions such as combinations, bounces, ditches, banks, and skinnys.

Training (up to 3'3" jumping height) – This group is for the horse and rider combination that is actively schooling or competing at training or at novice and looking to move up. They are comfortable galloping in the open and jumping various fences both in the ring and in the cross country or hunt field. Emphasis will be on improving the riders position and use of the aids in order to further develop the right energy, rhythm, and balance to the fence. Horses will build on their existing foundation and tackle more difficult questions and combinations both in show jumping and on the cross country field.

Dressage/Flatwork – This group is for the horse with a basic flatwork foundation and the rider that wants to improve their position and use of the aids in order to further develop. Emphasis is on learning the importance of the correct bend, relaxation and submission, and the horse and rider's understanding of basic aids. Transitions, lateral work, lengthenings, and using the corners will be just some of the exercises used. Focus will be on fundamentals of German dressage training.

Please note: Sharon and her crew, as always, are willing and (very) able to tailor the sessions to the needs of the horses and riders in the group. The camp is designed for all participants to improve their skills, to have a wonderful time, and to be safe time with their horses. They (and we) just want you to have FUN!
